SHL announces change in management

Tel Aviv / Zurich, 26 October 2016 – SHL Telemedicine Ltd. (SIX Swiss Exchange: SHLTN, OTCPK: SMDCY) (“SHL”), a leading provider and developer of advanced personal telemedicine solutions, today announced that Irit Alroy, Chief Technology Officer, will leave the company by mid January 2017. A replacement will be announced in due time.

Irit Alroy has served as SHL’s Executive Vice-President and Chief Technology Officer since the company’s inception. Yuval Shaked, CEO of SHL, commented: „SHL has become a leading player in the telemedicine market thanks to the seamless integration of end-user devices with a flexible and reliable IT backbone and proprietary software. Irit’s leadership and know-how contributed to SHL ability to grow into such a strong position. Going forward, we intend to continue and leverage our IT and software capabilities for additional territories and new service offerings. I thank Irit for her long and dedicated service to SHL and wish her all the best for the future“.
