Carl Hermann Schleifer appointed new Member of the Advisory Board of PHTS, SHL's German subsidiary

Dusseldorf/Tel Aviv/Zurich, April 24, 2006 – PHTS, SHL's German subsidiary, announced that Dr. Carl Hermann Schleifer has been appointed as a new member of the Advisory Board. Carl Hermann Schleifer, a late States Secretary of the ministry of finance of Schleswig-Holstein, was Chief Executive of Damp Group in Germany for several years and was recently elected to the Advisory Board of this group.

Erez Alroy, Co-CEO of SHL Telemedicine comments: "We are delighted by Mr Schleifer's commitment for our pioneering activities in the German telemedicine market. He has demonstrated entrepreneurial success in the medical services field. As Chief Executive he established Damp Group as one of the most important entrepreneurs with now 7400 employees in Schleswig-Holstein and he played a key role in the development of innovative healthcare solutions in Northern Germany. His reputation as well as his network and knowledge of the German healthcare market will be very important for PHTS."

Carl Hermann Schleifer is also member of the Advisory or Supervisory Board of AXA Krankenversicherung AG, Deutsche Ärzteversicherung AG (DÄV), AXA Group and AWD Holding.

Personal HealthCare Telemedicine Services GmbH (PHTS), established in 2001 in Dusseldorf, is a fully owned subsidiary of SHL Telemedicine. PHTS combines innovative practicable telemedicine solutions with substantiated telemedicine know-how and has gained a leading position in cardiac telemedicine in Germany.
