

Ziv Carthy – a Brief Bio

Ziv is a seasoned executive and investor with 25 years of successful track record in variety of industries, multinational enterprises and small companies.

Ziv recently co-founded and still serves as a founding-partner of Copia Fund that invest in early stage agriculture and food technologies.

Ziv also acts as a strategy consultant to portfolio companies of KKR – a global investment firm.

Previously, Ziv worked at SAP as a Senior Vice President within the ERP and the Partner groups.

Prior to that Ziv co-founded a software startup, which was acquired by SAP AG.

He served on the Boards of SHL Telemedicine (SWX), Robogroup (TASE), and cPacket Networks (Silicon Valley private company).

Ziv earned a B.Sc. in Information Systems Engineering from Israel Institute of Technology, and a MBA degree from Harvard University.

He is married and a father to 3 children.