SHL Telemedicine German operation awarded a large Chronic Disease Telehealth contract by AOK Bayern

Tel Aviv / Zurich, 19 July 2021 – SHL Telemedicine Ltd. (SIX Swiss Exchange: SHLTN), a leading provider and developer of advanced personal telemedicine solutions, today announced that its German subsidiary was awarded a multi-year large Chronic Disease Telehealth contract following a tender, to continue and provide the service to congestive heart failure (CHF) patients of AOK Bayern.

“We are very proud to have been chosen by AOK Bayern to continue and provide our telehealth services to their insured with CHF. It is a testament to the high-quality service combined with state-of-the-art technological solutions, that we provide to our customers and their insured” commented Erez Nachtomy, CEO of SHL Telemedicine. “We are confident in the success and continued growth of our German business by continuing to provide our service offerings and through the launch of new contracts, offerings and technologies.”

With more than 4.5 million insured people that trust its services, AOK Bayern is the largest health insurance company in Bavaria with a market share of over 40 percent, and is close to its customers at around 250 locations. In addition to personal on-site service, AOK Bayern also offers its customers innovative online services.
