The German Society of Cardiologists in Private Practice (BNK) and SHL Telemedicine German Operation enter into Collaboration Agreement across Germany

The agreement is about provision of SHL's telemedicine services for eligible chronic heart failure (CHF) patients treated by Cardiologists' members of BNK.

Tel Aviv / Zurich, 26 April 2022 – SHL Telemedicine Ltd. (SIX Swiss Exchange: SHLTN), a leading provider and developer of advanced personal telemedicine solutions, today announced that its German subsidiary and the German Society of Cardiologists in Private Practice – BNK (Bundesverband Niedergelassener Kardiologen e.V.) entered into a collaboration agreement, according to which all Cardiologists' members of BNK will have access to SHL's high quality proven remote monitoring platform and services for their chronic heart failure patients.

“As we continue to develop our activities in Germany, we are very pleased to have been chosen by the German Society of Cardiologists in Private Practice – BNK as partner to provide telemedicine services for CHF patients treated by their cardiologists' members” said Erez Nachtomy, CEO of SHL Telemedicine. “This collaboration is a testament to SHL's high-quality service combined with state-of-the-art technological solutions that we provide to our customers and their patients, and strong evidence to the continued shift of telemedicine services into standard of care in the German healthcare market.”

The German Society of Cardiologists in Private Practice – BNK is based in Munich and was founded in 1979. It is the largest association of cardiologists in private practice in Germany with about 1,400 members, thus representing over 90% of resident cardiologists in Germany. The members of the BNK are participating and active in numerous committees, project groups, health and professional policy groups at the German State and Federal level.
