SHL Telemedicine to appoint Jason M. Bottiglieri, a highly experienced healthcare executive, as General Manager of SHL Telemedicine USA

Jason Bottiglieri held senior leadership roles within the cardiovascular device market including Invatec (acquired by Medtronic), Spectranetics (acquired by Philips) and Cordis, a Johnson & Johnson company. He also served as President and CEO of Infraredx (acquired by Nipro Corporation) and InnovHeart Srl.

Tel Aviv / Zurich, 14 June 2022 – SHL Telemedicine Ltd. (SIX Swiss Exchange: SHLTN) ("SHL"), a leading provider and developer of advanced personal telemedicine solutions, announced today, that it has nominated Mr. Jason Bottiglieri as General Manager of SHL Telemedicine USA, Inc., its wholly owned US subsidiary.

Jason Bottiglieri has over 25 years of commercial and executive-level management experience within the cardiovascular device field. He has extensive experience establishing and leading sales, marketing and operations teams, successfully commercializing innovative technologies in the global market. In his most recent position, Mr. Bottiglieri held the role of Chief Commercial Officer at Elucid Bioimaging, a developer of a non-invasive artificial intelligence medical software used for cardiovascular disease diagnosis. Prior to that he served as President and CEO of InnovHeart S.r.L., a developer of transcatheter mitral valve replacement systems, and as President and CEO of Infraredx, a developer of intravascular imaging systems, acquired in 2015 by Nipro Corporation of Japan.

Jason Bottiglieri commented, "I am honored to join SHL Telemedicine to lead the SHL US business unit during this exciting period of growth. The achievements and strategic collaborations that SHL has established in a very short time form a strong foundation for the significant potential of the SmartHeart™ technology. Together with the dedicated and talented SHL US team, we will continue the work to realize the potential for SHL and establish SmartHeart™ as a household name."

Erez Nachtom, CEO of SHL Telemedicine added, „We are pleased that Jason is joining the SHL leadership team. Jason brings with him impressive knowledge and experience in executive-level positions in the medical device field. SHL is accelerating its activity in the US and we are confident that under Jason's leadership we will significantly expand the use of our SmartHeart™ ECG technology in the US.“
